MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: George V. Lauder
Director of Public Affairs

SUBJECT: Address to the Yale Club of Washington, D.C.

1. Action Requested: None. This is background information for your visit and address to the Yale Club of Washington, D.C. on Thursday, 26 September, from 5:30 - 8:15 p.m., at Headquarters building.

2. Arrangements: If your schedule permits, you are invited to attend the wine and cheese hour at 6:00 p.m. in the Mezzanine of the South Cafeteria. Members of my staff, CIA Yale alumni, and I will be on hand to mingle with the group during the wine and cheese hour and will also attend the briefings in order to help with logistical arrangements and to answer any questions.

The meeting begins at 6:45 p.m. in the auditorium. Your briefing begins at 6:55 p.m. [redacted]

[redacted] will make a few opening remarks and I will introduce you. Suggested length of your address is 15 minutes. You will be followed by Inspector General John Stein who will speak for approximately 25 minutes followed by a CIA panel of Yale Graduates who will answer questions from the floor. (See complete agenda opposite.)

3. Speech: Your proposed remarks are attached.

4. Audience: Approximately 450 Yale alumni, spouses, and children (over 18) will be present. Since several of the attendees indicated some type of media affiliation, I will make it clear that your remarks are to be off-the-record.

[redacted]
George V. Lauder
